

REVIEWS

"Always strikes with that honesty and delicacy that really defines SOUL music. His mastery is on the run here. Giving groove and poem to the shit that be on everyone's heart and mind."

Ishmael Butler aka Butterfly - Digable Planets/Cherrywine

"A promising vocalist with tremendous range, Darrius moves in and out of his sweet falsetto voice with ease!"

Jason West-The Rocket

"Willrich plays in a creamy harmonically sophisticated style on the Fender Rhodes that recalls Chick Corea in the Miles Davis electric band."

Paul de Barros-Seattle PI

"Sensual, smooth, romantic, emotional, sophisticated, beautiful, these are the words that come to mind. You hear a strong influence by Stevie Wonder on his first album, but this CD sounds more like himself. It is very beautiful - you go to another planet when you listen."

Terry Weadock - www.jazzdigger.com

"...tracks that are wonderfully produced horned by intelligently well written lyrics. Darrius carries himself as a seasoned veteran...He has been compared to the likes of the legendary Stevie Wonder, Donny Hathaway and Lionel Richie - high praise for a young man fresh out the gates."

Ty D - www.tydmusic.com

"Delivering songs rich in vocal talent, technique and warm tone, Darrius moves melodies and carries harmonies across a spectrum of soul, blues and R&B."

Loren Weisman - Producer, Author and Founder of Brain Grenade Entertainment

"Man...can't get enough is a classic..."

Freddy - French Soul-Jazz-Hip Hop Artist